4. Discuss and review redesign of website.er

Laura Dapkus explained to the board her plan for updating and refreshing the website. She has added a property listing feature and suggested that we can have local realtors post their own listings. She asked the board members to review the mission statements and offer ideas for changing them, provide updated pictures (especially showing people participating), and focus on local assets such as the local community college and proximity to other entertainment venues.

There needs to be at least five items of focus to entice businesses to consider putting facilities in Van Alstyne. The board recommended three: distribution centers, manufacturing services, and technology development. Ms. Dapkus recommend that we come up with two more.

Additionally, the board agreed to send her an updated traffic map for the area, local business data, and number of houses planned for construction.

With the idea of considering Van Alstyne as a gateway to Dallas, the board suggested using, “Business Opportunities as Big as Dallas” as a tag line.
